Retail platforms leverage BitGo's advanced infrastructure and licensing capabilities to bring secure crypto functionality to their users. BitGo provides a comprehensive suite tailored for fintech enterprises to build, launch, and scale products. The offering removes complexities with regulatory and technological licensing to integrate digital assets and fiat natively and quickly.

BitGo powers your financial products

Get to market fast with fully regulated, plug-and-play APIs to empower your end users with secure crypto offerings.

Whatever your use case, choose from BitGo's stack of crypto-powered APIs to supercharge your stack:

Fast KYC	Seamlessly submit and approve users through rapid KYC and onboarding flows*
On/off ramps	Seamless connection between traditional banking and crypto ecosystems
Trade	Empower your users to trade the top cryptocurrency pairs within your own UI
Transfer	Offer instant transfers of all supported assets without leaving BitGo's custody
Wallet Infrastructure	Robust custodial hot and cold wallet infrastructure that integrates digital assets and fiat natively
Staking	Enable secure staking to offer your users predictable rewards
Regulatory Licensing	Skip the painful process of acquiring your own licenses by leveraging BitGo's regulated entities
24/7 Support	Receive dedicated account management and technical guidance with 24/7 global customer support
Insurance	With BitGo's custodial wallets, all client funds are insured up to $250m
Policy Controls	Customizable policy engine to enforce user permissions, spending limits, and other safeguards to protect your organization and your users

*currently only for US individuals

Backed by innovative and market leading security

As a market leader in wallet security, BitGo has never lost a dollar of client funds due to a hack. Our APIs are battle-tested and deploy multi-layered security to ensure your business gets to market quickly and safely.
