Enhance your cryptocurrency ATM business with BitGo, allowing seamless buying and selling of cryptocurrency in exchange for fiat. Your retail customers can engage directly with the ATMs without needing BitGo accounts or wallets.

BitGo ensures secure storage of all coins and tokens, managing all transactions behind the scenes. With BitGo, your customers can enjoy secure and fast transactions from self-custody hot wallets, while the majority of your assets remain in custody storage for maximum security.

Additionally, BitGo provides your ATMs with a competitive edge by offering favorable trading prices. By aggregating the order books of multiple major platforms, BitGo eliminates the need to rely on a single platform.
